Disclaimer
This book is for informational purposes only and should not be used without a licensed Self Mastery trainer by your side.

If for some reason, you should attempt to use any of the techniques, principles or philosophies you are doing so under your own free will and will not hold The School of Self Mastery Inc. responsible or liable for all or any of your actions.

By reading this book you are agreeing that you are fully responsible for all your actions and will hold yourself accountable and liable for anything unfortunate that can unfold in your life.

This should not be news to you because you are in fact truly responsible for your life. Nobody else is, unless you give them your own personal power and trust them to be your leaders, which still becomes your responsibility because you still trusted them with your own personal power.

Guidance in Choosing Responsible Authority Figures:
Whenever you are choosing to learn from a master/superior/teacher and so on please choose your authority figure wisely.

This person is going to be your master/superior/teacher and so on because they have mastered the area you are trying to better yourself in. You trust them by allowing them to give you information and they trust you for receiving theirs. Please be respectful to each other's wants and desires. Do your best not to harm one another in the process. We are here to better ourselves and create a nice and healthy competitive atmosphere between the both of us.

I want you to succeed and be the best that you can/want to be. Please be respectful and treat others with that same level of respect you want to be treated.

The point of all this is to ensure that we are all equals with our own level of mastery in our own respective crafts. We teach others what we can and we learn what we can from others. However, there is always a switch between teacher and student whenever you interact with somebody. It is important that you recognize this and choose your friends/teachers/authority figures carefully.
