Michael Bendrey is a Chartered Management Accountant, a Chartered Certified Accountant and holds an MSc in Business Administration. He has held a variety of financial appointments in the Chemical, Electrical, Printing, Packaging and Newspaper Industries, and since 1976 has been engaged in education and training at all levels.

He has taught on professional, undergraduate and postgraduate programmes at the Universities of the West of England (where he was Faculty Chairman at Bristol Business School), Bristol, Bath, Exeter and Ballarat (Australia). Michael has combined this academic career with consultancy activities, and advised on the appraisal and financing of large infrastructure projects in the Middle East (Syria, Jordan and Oman), Africa (Ethiopia, Zambia, Tanzania and Mozambique), and old Eastern Bloc countries (Latvia, Poland and Russia). He has also worked in Cyprus and Turkey on similar projects, and acted as a consultant to UK companies.

Roger Hussey is Dean of the Odette Business School at the University of Windsor, Canada, and Visiting Professor at Bristol Business School, University of the West of England. His first career was as an accountant in industry, and he is still a Fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants. He went on to study for an M.Sc in Industrial Relations at Bath University, and followed this with a Ph.D. in Management at the same university.

On leaving Bath, Roger went to St Edmund Hall, Oxford University, as Director of Research into Employee Communications for 6 years. This was followed by 15 years at Bristol Business School before moving to Canada in 2000.
